Any employee hired after the ratification date of this Agreement shall comply with the Section no later than thirty (30) days following such employment. Monthly dues as used herein are defined as monies that can be required lawfully as a term or condition of employment.

Section 1.3. Dues Check off. (a) While this Agreement is in effect the Employer will deduct dues as defined above for all employees as provided for in the authorization form set forth at Appendix A of this Agreement. Dues will be deducted weekly and forwarded monthly. The Union will provide the Employer with a written authorization signed by the employee.

(b) The Employer will notify the Union promptly of any revocation of dues authorization.

None of these rights shall be exercised in an arbitrary or capricious manner. Nothing contained herein shall be construed as prohibiting filing of a grievance alleging a violation of the express provisions of this Agreement.

ARTICLE III

No Strike and No Lockout

Section 3.1. No Strike. Neither the Union nor any officers, agents, or employees will instigate, promote, sponsor, engage in, or condone any strike, sympathy strike, subscriber or advertising boycott, or any other intentional interruption of the operations of the Employer, regardless of the reason for so doing, during the term of this Agreement. Any or all employees who violate any of the provisions of this Article may be discharged or otherwise disciplined by the Employer.

Section 3.2. No Lockout. The Employer will not lock out any employees during the term of this Agreement as a result of a labor dispute with the Union.

Section 3.3. Penalty. The failure to confer a penalty in any instance is not a waiver of such right in any other instance nor is it a precedent.

ARTICLE IV

Grievance Procedure

Section 4.1. Definition. A grievance is a dispute or difference of opinion raised by an employee covered by this Agreement or the Union against the Employer involving the meaning, interpretation or application of the express provisions of this Agreement.

Section 4.2. Settlement Procedure. (a) A Union representative shall be present at the discussion and settlement at all steps of the grievance procedure. The steps of the procedure are as follows:

Step One: The employee or the Union shall file the grievance orally or in writing with the immediate supervisor. The immediate supervisor shall then discuss the grievance with the employee and the Union present. If no resolution is affected by such discussion, the supervisor shall give a written response within five (5) working days.

Step Two: Upon receipt of the Employer's Step One response the Union has ten (10) working days to file the grievance at the second step. The editor or his/her designee shall meet with the Union within ten (10) working days of the filing of the grievance at the second step. If no resolution is affected by such discussion, the Editor shall give a written answer to the grievance within five (5) working days.

(b) If a grievance is not settled in accordance with the foregoing procedure, the Union may submit the grievance to arbitration within forty-two (42) calendar days after receipt of the Employer's answer or, if no answer is given, within forty-two (42) calendar days after the answer is due. Such submission shall be in writing and a notice of such submission shall be sent to the Employer or its representative. The Union shall request the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service ("FMCS") submit a panel of arbitrators. The Parties or their attorneys shall attempt to select the Arbitrator from the list provided by the FMCS. Each party has the right to reject any or all Arbitrators on any panel. If the parties cannot agree upon an Arbitrator within fifteen (15) calendar days from receipt of the original list, either Party may request the FMCS to submit an additional panel. In the event that the Parties cannot agree upon an Arbitrator within fifteen (15) calendar days from receipt of the second list, either Party may request the FMCS to submit a third panel, if the Parties cannot agree upon an Arbitrator within fifteen (15) calendar days after receiving three (3) panels from the FMCS, all three panels shall be combined and the parties will, within the next fifteen (15) calendar days alternatively strike all the names on the combined panel until one name remains. That remaining named Arbitrator will be notified of his or her selection as Arbitrator. The FMCS will only submit names of Arbitrators who are members of the National Academy of Arbitrators, located in the Northeast (the New England and Middle-Atlantic States). The Parties are not bound by the rules of the FMCS.

Section 4.3. Authority of the Arbitrator. The arbitrator shall have no right to alter, amend, nullify, add to, or subtract from the provisions of this Agreement. The arbitrator's decision shall be based solely upon his or her interpretation of the meaning or application of the express terms of this Agreement to the facts of the grievance presented. A decision of an arbitrator rendered in accordance with the terms of this Agreement shall be final and binding.

Section 4.4. Expenses of Arbitration. The fee and expenses of the arbitrator shall be divided equally between the Employer and the Union, provided, however, that neither party shall be responsible for compensating the representatives and witnesses of the other party.

Section 4.5. Time Limit for Filing. No grievance shall be entertained or processed unless it is submitted within forty-two (42) calendar days after the occurrence of the event giving rise to the grievance or within forty-two (42) calendar days after the Union obtained knowledge of the occurrence of the event giving rise to the grievance, or should have obtained such knowledge. If a grievance is not presented within the time limits set forth above, it shall be considered "waived." If the Employer does not answer a grievance or an appeal thereof within the specified time limits, the Union may file the grievance at the next step within the designated time limits. The time limit in each step may be extended by mutual written agreement of the Employer and the Union representatives involved in each step. (Note: The failure of an individual employee to pursue a grievance within the specified time limit will not prevent the Union from later filing a similar grievance unless the Union had knowledge of the original issue's facts or should have had such knowledge.)

The Employer may elect to use a rotation system in order to provide employees with a Saturday or Sunday off. Consistent with the needs of the newspaper, the intent of the rotation system is to equalize opportunities over a reasonable period of time for weekend days off among the affected group of employees as identified by the Employer (hereinafter “the affected group”). In order to receive severance pay, an employee must execute and not revoke a waiver and general release of all known and unknown, suspected and unsuspected legal claims or causes of action against the Company, its affiliates and employees, excepting only grievances arising under the collective bargaining agreement and any vested or accrued benefits payable upon termination under the collective bargaining agreement, which will not be subject to the waiver, on a form attached hereto as Exhibit A. If an arbitrator awards back pay as a result of a grievance challenging a layoff where the Company has paid severance pay to the grievant, the Company shall have the right to offset the gross amount of any severance paid from the back pay award. If the severance paid exceeds the back pay award, the grievant must repay the gross differential to the Company, either by tendering the amount due or by authorizing, in writing, payroll deductions to repay the differential over time.

(ii) Any employee who is recalled after having received severance pay in accordance with Article XI shall be deemed a new employee for the purpose of qualifying for any subsequent severance.

(f) Vacancies will be posted on the company website.

Section 11.7. Voluntary Separations. In the event that the Employer desires to offer voluntary termination incentives to individual employees or groups of employees to reduce the force, it shall afford the Union the opportunity to bargain concerning the terms of the voluntary incentives, if any. Absent agreement, the Employer may post voluntary termination incentives based on the last offer presented to the Union.

Section 11.8. Notice of Technological Change. The Employer will notify the Union at least two (2) month in advance of the implementation of any technological change that substantially changes employees' hours of work or results in a layoff of bargaining unit members; provided that such notice shall be given at least three (3) months in advance if the technological change will result in the layoff of five (5) or more employees within a sixty (60) day period. Notification shall include the identification of the types of equipment and the positions affected. Employees working on new equipment shall receive reasonable training at the Employer's expense.

Section 11.9. Mileage. (a) The employer shall compensate for the use of an automobile in the service of the Employer at the same rate paid to non-union employees. Mileage reimbursement shall not go below $.40 per mile unless the average gas prices in Fairfield County falls below $2 a gallon.

Section 11.10. Stringers. The Employer shall maintain the right to use freelance writers and photographers ("stringers") provided that the use of stringers shall not result in any layoffs of bargaining unit members.

Section 11.11. Meal Stipend. For the purpose of defraying meal expenses after the cafeteria is closed, the Employer shall pay $10 per shift to any employee scheduled to begin working a full shift at or after 1:00 pm that calendar day.

Section 11.12. Direct Deposit. The Employer shall encourage and continue to permit direct deposit of an employee's paycheck.

Section 11.13. Complete Agreement and Waiver. No precedents or previous conditions, rules or agreements, shall be recognized in any way, or affect or modify this Agreement unless specifically provided for in this Agreement.

This Agreement represents the complete and entire agreement between the Parties and there are no understandings or agreements, written or oral, relating to rates of pay, hours of work or conditions of employment other than those set forth herein or incorporated herein by reference.

The Union waives the right to bargain over any other matters, other than the express provisions of this Agreement. This Agreement supersedes any prior agreements whether implied, express, written or oral between this Employer and the Union. The Union further acknowledges that there are no past practices of either party that would arise to the level of supplementing, amending or in anyway superceding the express provisions of this agreement or in anyway modifying or infringing on the broad rights of management.

In the event that any of the provisions of this Agreement are or hereafter become unlawful or unenforceable by virtue of any legislative enactment or decision of any court or any agency of competent jurisdiction, the remaining provisions of this Agreement shall be unaffected by such invalidity or unenforceability and this Agreement shall otherwise continue in full force and effect throughout the term of this agreement.

Section 11.14. Union Bulletin Board.

The Employer shall provide the Union with a bulletin board in the newsroom in a mutually agreeable location.

Section 11.15. Other Benefits. The Employer offers other benefits that are not referred to in this Collective Bargaining Agreement to some or all employees. It is the right of the Employer to amend, delete, terminate or in anyway change these benefits. The Employer will notify the Union of any of these changes. The Union has no right to bargain over these non-contractual benefits.

Section 11.16. Professional Day.

(a) Each January 1, a full-time employee shall earn two (2) professional days, which cannot be carried over from year to year, intended to be used for the employee's professional development in his/her job at the Advocate.

(b) An employee who desires to attend a professional development event, such as a writing seminar, shall request permission of the Editor at least three (3) weeks in advance, which may be waived at the sole discretion of the Editor.

(c) A request for a professional day shall not be arbitrarily or capriciously denied, provided that allowing more than one (1) employee off on the same day shall be at the sole discretion of the Editor.

(d) An employee off on a professional day shall receive a full shift's pay at his/her normal straight time rate. The Employer shall not be required to pay for expenses or mileage, provided the Editor may do so at his sole discretion.

(e) A maximum of five (5) union stewards or committee members can use one (1) of these professional days for union activity (e.g., union conference, training, or educational events). The Union shall notify management as to who the stewards are and will provide notice as soon as possible if the identity of the stewards changes.

Section 11.17. Cell Phone Stipend.

The Employer will provide bargaining unit employees with the same cell phone/smart phone/technology benefits as are provided to other Company employees.

Section 11.18. Professional Development.

The Employer will set aside $2,500 per year to pay for professional development courses and seminars for employees. Approval of funds shall be at the discretion of the Employer, taking into account the cost and job-relatedness of the course or seminar for which payment is sought. If approved for payment, courses and seminars must be taken on personal time so as not to interfere or conflict with work schedules or assignments.

Section 12.1. Personal Leave of Absence.

(a) A Personal Leave of Absence without pay may be granted to regular full-time employees who have completed at least twelve consecutive months of continuous employment. (b) Personal Leaves will not be granted for a period of more than six months and normally not until all accrued vacation time had been used.

During any period of family and medical leave taken in accordance with the Family Medical Leave Act or the Connecticut State Personnel Act, full-time employees may continue their health insurance benefits as though the employee were at work (with the Company continuing to pay the employer share of the premiums), provided that the employee remits the applicable employee portion of the premiums on a monthly basis.

(d) Requests for a family or medical leave must be given at least 30 days in advance when possible. Written certification from the treating physician or other health care provider is required. All family and medical leaves must be approved in advance by the Employer.

Employees must provide the Employer with at least 2 weeks advance notice of the intended return to work date.

(e) A leave of absence resulting from pregnancy is covered under both the short-term disability (STD) leave policy and under the provisions of the Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA). STD and FMLA coverage runs concurrently and will be granted to all employees who have fulfilled eligibility requirements for both STD and FMLA. Part-time employees eligible for only FMLA leave may take unpaid leave resulting from pregnancy under the FMLA policy.

Section 12.4. Funeral Leave.

This Agreement shall be effective as of the date of ratification and shall remain in full force and effect through June 30, 2013. In the event that either party notifies the other in writing of an intent to modify this agreement, or negotiate a new contract, negotiations shall begin no later than thirty (30) days prior to the anniversary/termination date. This Agreement shall remain in full force and be effective during the period of negotiations and until notice of termination of this Agreement is provided to the other party in the manner set forth in the following paragraph. Letter of Understanding

Re: Jury Duty

The Employer recognizes that jury duty sometimes extends beyond the two weeks provided for in Section 12.5 of this Agreement.

Letter of Understanding

Nothing contained in Section 11.2 shall be construed as recognition by the Employer of unmarried domestic partner relationships for the purpose of receiving company benefits.

Letter of Understanding

With respect to locally provided benefits that are available to all SCNI employees, the Employer has no current plans to end those benefits (i.e., free parking, cafeteria, etc.). The Employer does have the unilateral right to discontinue or modify those benefits. If such change or termination is for all employees, the Employer will give the Union advance notice and be available to answer their questions. No further obligation exists. If the change or termination only impacts bargaining unit members, besides notice, the parties would have the obligation to discuss the effect upon bargaining unit employees. The employer has no obligation to make any new benefits it confers to any or all non-unit employees available to bargaining unit employees. Of course, such new benefits would be appropriate subject of future collective bargaining.

Letter of Understanding

The employer shall furnish with reasonable promptness to Local 2110 at its main office, or at its main email address, as well as the Unit Chair in writing the following information on new hires: (i) Name, address, telephone number, sex, date of birth, and social security number; (ii) Date of hire; (iii) Full time or part time status; (iv) Classification; and (v) Salary. In addition, the Employer shall with reasonable promptness notify the Unit Chair in writing of (a) all increases granted including name of employee, individual amount, resulting in new salary and effective dates(s); and (b) changes in classification and any salary by reason thereof and effective date(s).
